Dear Mr. Kent:

Mr. Jackson has asked me to reply to your letter of 28 October 1950.

I have discussed the matter of your "Examination" while with us with [redacted] Executive Officer, who advises me that we will be able to work out satisfactory arrangements as outlined in your letter.

We are looking forward to seeing you on Monday, the 13th. If I can be of any assistance to you, please do not hesitate to let me know.

Sincerely,

/s/ [redacted]

Dear Bill,

Excuse the delay in getting this off - but as you understand, it's been quite a job to get things straightened around.

The best I can do is to E.O.D. (and you enough of a bureaucrat to know that one yet?) on Monday 13 Nov. I can stay with you into December - up to c. 20 Dec. if necessary.

As to pay - I realize that you are ^{not} likely to overpay me than underpay me, but here's the situation: STATOTHR
